Sec. 28-2. Purpose.

(a) This chapter is intended to regulate the size, number, location, and manner of display of signs in the city consistent with the following purposes:

- (1) To protect and further the health, safety, and welfare of residents, property owners, and visitors;
- (2) To prevent traffic hazards and pedestrian accidents caused by signs that obstruct vision, distract or confuse drivers, or are improperly secured or constructed;
- (3) To conserve and enhance community character;
- (4) To promote uniformity in the size, number, and placement of signs within the various districts defined in this chapter;
- (5) To promote the economic viability of commercial areas by minimizing visual clutter and allowing for proper placement of signs to safely and effectively direct motorists to their destination; and
- (6) To balance the public's right to be informed and its desire to avoid visual pollution and hazardous conditions with businesses' and nonbusinesses' right to communicate.

(b) This chapter is not intended to regulate the content of any sign.

(c) The regulations and standards of this chapter are the minimum amount of regulation necessary to achieve a substantial government interest in public safety, aesthetics, protection of property values, and economic growth.

- (2) Ground sign.
 - a. One ground sign of no more than 50 square feet is permitted for each lot.
 - b. The height of a ground sign may not exceed six feet above ground as measured to the top of the sign.
 - c. A ground sign must be set back at least five feet from all lot lines.

- d. A ground sign must conform to the requirements for clear vision contained in section 28-6(a).

- (3) Industrial park identification sign. One sign may be erected at each industrial park entrance to identify the park and the industries within. An industrial park identification sign must comply with the requirements for ground signs. An industrial park identification sign may be a ground sign or a wall sign and must be constructed primarily with carved wood, brick, stone, wrought iron, glazed tile, or other similar decorative material and must be appropriately landscaped with low-level lighting.
- (4) Noncommercial signs.
 - a. One noncommercial sign per candidate or issue is permitted for each lot.

Sec. 28-13. Dangerous, unsafe, and illegally erected signs.

(a) Dangerous signs. Any sign that constitutes an immediate hazard to health or safety is deemed a nuisance and may be immediately removed by the city. The cost of removal will be charged against the owner of the property on which the sign was installed.

(b) Unsafe signs. Any sign that the zoning administrator deems unsafe but that does not represent an immediate health or safety hazard must be removed or brought into compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

(Code 1972, § 22.413; Ord. No. 194, § 13.0, eff. 8-28-2003)

Sec. 28-14. Administration.

(a) Administration. This chapter is administered by the city manager or the city manager's agent.

(b) Appeals; review. The planning commission hears and decides appeals from and reviews any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official charged with the enforcement of this chapter.

(c) Variance. The planning commission may authorize a variance from the terms of this chapter where the variance will not be contrary to the public interest and where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of this chapter would violate the intent of the chapter. A variance may be granted for height, area, and size of structure, sign setback, or other dimensional limitation, to the maximum allowed in other areas of the city as specified in this chapter.

- (1) The planning commission may only grant a variance from the provisions of this chapter when it finds, based on the evidence presented, that all of the following standards have been met:

- a. Compliance with the strict enforcement of the provisions of this chapter would unreasonably prevent the applicant from using the property for a permitted purpose;
 - b. Conditions and circumstances exist that are unique to the property;
 - c. Granting the variance applied for would do substantial justice to the applicant as well as to other property owners in the vicinity or that a lesser variance than that applied for would give substantial relief to the applicant and be more consistent with justice to other property owners; and
 - d. The problem is not created by the applicant.
- (2) Further, in granting a variance, the planning commission must find that the spirit of this chapter is observed, public safety is secured, and substantial justice is done.
- (d) Conditions of approval. In authorizing a variance, the planning commission may attach conditions reasonably necessary to further the intent and spirit of this chapter and to protect the public interest.
- (e) Time limitations on variances. Any variance granted automatically terminates 12 months after the date granted unless all of the following requirements are met:
- (1) Before the variance expires, the owner must apply for a 12-month extension of the variance;
 - (2) The owner must show good cause why the variance was not implemented; and
 - (3) The owner or the owner's agent must have taken substantial steps in implementing the variance.
- (f) Procedure.
- (1) An appeal or application for a variance or from any ruling of the officer administering this chapter must be made to the city manager or the city manager's agent. The applicant shall pay a fee as established, from time to time, by resolution of the city council. The application must contain all information required by the city manager or agent. The city manager or agent must transmit the application and all other pertinent information to the planning commission.

- (2) The planning commission must fix a reasonable time and place for the appeal hearing and must give 15 days notice of the hearing to all persons owning real property within 300 feet of the premises in question. The notice may be delivered personally or by mail addressed to the respective owners and tenants at the address given in the last assessment roll.
 - (3) The planning commission must conduct a public hearing on the appeal, during which any affected party may appear in person or by agent and must be given an opportunity to be heard. The applicant or the applicant's agent must appear at this hearing to present or answer questions regarding the appeal.
- (g) Decisions of the planning commission.
- (1) The planning commission may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed and must make whatever order, requirement, decision, or determination it deems appropriate. To that end, the planning commission has all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken and may issue or direct the issuance of a permit.
 - (2) A majority vote of the members of the planning commission is necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of the city manager or agent or to take any action under this chapter.
 - (3) The planning commission must make a decision within 45 days after the completion of the public hearing. Failure to do so will cause the appeal to be approved unless the failure is beyond the commission's ability to control. The applicant may waive this time requirement in writing. A copy of the commission's decision must be furnished to the applicant and the city manager or agent.

- (4) An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the city manager or agent from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the planning commission after the notice of appeal is filed that by reason of facts stated in the certificate, a stay would cause imminent peril to life or property. In these circumstances, proceedings may not be stayed other than by a restraining order granted by the planning commission or by the circuit court on application, on notice to the city manager or agent from whom the appeal is taken, and on due cause shown. (Code 1972, § 22.414; Ord. No. 194, § 14.0, eff. 8-28-2003)

Sec. 28-15. Permits.

(a) Permit required. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, no person may erect, structurally alter or maintain, or relocate any sign without first obtaining a permit.

(b) Application. An application for a sign permit must be made to the city manager or agent along with a fee as required by city council resolution. The application, at a minimum, must include the following:

- (1) Name, address, telephone number, and signature of the applicant and the person, firm, or corporation erecting the sign;
- (2) Address or permanent parcel number of the property where the sign will be located;
- (3) A sketch showing the location of the building, structure, or lot on which the sign is to be attached or erected and showing the proposed sign in relation to buildings and structures along with setback from lot lines;
- (4) Two blueprints or drawings of the plans and specifications, method of construction and attachment to structures or ground, and if deemed necessary by the city manager or agent, calculations showing that the structure is designed for dead load and wind pressure in any direction of not less than 30 pounds per square foot of area;

- (5) Any required electrical permit;
- (6) The district in which the sign is to be located;
- (7) Certificate of liability insurance in the amount required by this chapter; and
- (8) In the discretion of the city manager or agent, when the public safety requires, the drawings, plans, and specifications required with the application must bear the certificate or seal of a registered architect or engineer as a condition to the issuance of a permit.

(c) Permits not required. The following signs and those identified under section 28-5 do not require a permit:

- (1) Directional signs;
- (2) Construction signs;
- (3) Real estate signs advertising the premises on which the sign is located as being for sale, rent, or lease, if the signs are not more than six square feet in area for residential property or 32 square feet in area for nonresidential property; and
- (4) Help wanted signs of a temporary nature not more than 32 square feet.

(d) Liability insurance. Any person or entity seeking a sign permit must provide proof of insurance with coverage of at least in the amount as currently established or as hereafter adopted by resolution of the city council from time to time. (Code 1972, § 22.415; Ord. No. 194, § 15.0, eff. 8-28-2003)

Sec. 28-16. Enforcement.

(a) Any act or omission that violates a provision of this chapter is deemed a nuisance per se.

(b) A violation of this chapter is a municipal civil infraction, for which the fine is not less than $250.00 or more than $1,000.00 for the first offense and not less than $500.00 or more than $1,000.00 for subsequent offenses, in the discretion of the court, in addition to all other costs, damages, and expenses provided by law. For purposes of this section, the term "subsequent offense" means a violation of this chapter committed with respect to a separate incident by the same person within 12 months of a previous violation of this chapter for which the violator admitted responsibility or was adjudicated to be responsible.

(c) Each day a violation continues is a separate offense. Any person, including a public official, who commits, participates in, assists in, or maintains a violation may each be found responsible for a municipal civil infraction and may each be liable for the penalties provided in this chapter. Nothing in this chapter prevents the city council or any other public official or private citizen from taking lawful action as necessary to restrain or prevent a violation of this chapter.

(d) In addition to any other available remedy, the city may bring an action in its own name to restrain or prevent any violation of this chapter or any continuance of a violation. The person found violating this chapter must pay the city's costs and expenses in enforcing this chapter, including its attorney fees. (Code 1972, § 22.416; Ord. No. 194, § 16.0, eff. 8-28-2003)

Sec. 28-17. Conflict with other laws.

In any case where a provision of this chapter conflicts with a provision of any ordinance or code of the city existing on the effective date of the ordinance from which this chapter is derived, the provision that establishes the higher standard for the promotion and protection of public health and safety shall prevail. (Code 1972, § 22.417; Ord. No. 194, § 17.0, eff. 8-28-2003)
